Jane Gallatin-Powers Exhibit Now at Governor's Mansion State Historic Park in Sacramento through June 11

SACRAMENTO – A special exhibit, “Jane Gallatin-Powers: A Room of Her Own,” is now on display at the Governor's Mansion State Historic Park in Sacramento through June 2. The Governor's Mansion, located at 16th and H Streets, is open seven days a week, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission for adults is $1 and children under 16 are free. Guided tours last 40 minutes and begin on the hour starting at 10 a.m. The last tour is at 4 p.m.

In honor of Women's History Month, the exhibit looks at the life and art of Jane Gallatin-Powers, who grew up in the Mansion and later became one of the founding artists of Carmel-by-the-Sea, where she built the first artist studio. She maintained studios in Paris, Rome and Capri.

Her legacy continues today with seven generations of women artists.

Her great-great-granddaughter, Erin Gafill, writer, artist and family historian creates the exhibit. On May 18th, Ms. Gafill will be guest speaker at a special celebration at the mansion.
